An alarm of fire was sounded just at noon on Wednesday, caused by a slight fire of a shed near the Waterson depot. It was put out immediately. The Fire Department responded quickly as it was at an hour when they were all on the move towards home for lunch.

There was a Republican meeting in Common Wealth Hall, East Orange, last night which was addressed by Hon. Chas. H. Treat of Delaware and Hon. Jos. Coult of Newark. The National and State issues were discussed in an able manner.

Monday evening the Epworth League of the M. E. Church gave a Hallowe'en Social in the class room of the church. The room was prettily decorated with yellow autumn leaves and Jack-o'-lanterns. All present spent a pleasant evening.

There is no industry so thriving at present as the fire business, which is being pushed to its utmost capacity. There is no necessity of good workmen in this branch of being idle. The factories have work for all to do.

Paulist Fathers will hold a Mission in Bloomfield.

The Paulist Fathers connected with St. Paul's Catholic Church in New York City have arranged to hold a series of meetings in the Church of the Sacred Heart, commencing on Sunday, November 27th, and closing on the following Sunday.

Services will be held each day at 5 A. M., 8 A. M., 3:30 P. M., and 7:30 P. M. The services are such as are known among Protestant Churches as revival meetings and are intended to quicken their members and build up their church. At the evening services there will be preaching and the choir will be present. These meetings are not exclusive, but everyone is welcome. Many of the Paulist Fathers were in the Union Army during the war, and are men of ability and eloquence.

An Evening of Song at the Guild House.

The Ladies Guild of the Episcopal Church gave a very pleasing party of entertainment at the Guild House on Wednesday evening. The artists were: Mr. Albert G. Jones, Tenor; Miss May Brown, Violoncelle; Miss Eliza Spring, Elocutionist; and Mr. Clarence House, Accompanist. Every number on the programme was a good one. An encore was requested upon every number, and some of them three or four times and still the audience was far from being enough. It is worthy of mention that while the singing was going on, a false note was heard every word of the songs was clearly and distinctly enunciated, thereby giving those present the pleasure of understanding the words being sung.

Miss Eliza Spring, the Elocutionist, gave a very pleasing performance. Her closing piece, "A Lover's Lament," was very beautiful, and she was well received by the audience.

The Outlet Sewer.

The art of centralization, obtained by the City of Newark to restrain Orange from making use of the Passaic River at Bellville as an outlet for sewerage will be argued before the Board of Public Works next Friday. This writ does not prevent the construction of the sewer now in progress but requires its use until the question is decided. It is the intention of the Board of Public Works of Newark to take the case to the next session of the Legislature and the interest of Newark in this matter.
